

This service is something I value greatly - enough to expand my budget and have another monthly bill - so I feel I should receive every channel that I am intitled to. These regulations are an injust to our freedom of speach and should not even be taken into consideration, we should be free to love who we choose to love, watch what we choose to watch, and listen to what we choose to listen to and if someone else does not like it - TURN THE CHANNELL.....